

SONOMA SKYPARK NEWS

JANUARY 2019

HAPPY NEW YEAR – I wish you all a healthy and happy new year. The year ahead will be full of new projects and airport beautification as always. Ron and Rafe are set on finishing the vintage gas station and final touches on the Airway Beacon Tower.

AIRPORT CHRISTMAS PARTY - The holiday spirit was enjoyed by 80ish Skyparkians on Friday night, December 7th. As always everyone enjoyed a wonderful selection of Holiday foods and good conversation. After dinner we all enjoyed the White Elephant gift exchange. The hot items this year were stunt drones. They both went home to kids.

YOUNG EAGLES – The EAA Young Eagle rides will begin next Sunday, January 13th, at 9 AM to noon. Come out to the airport to participate, visit or just enjoy the fresh air with a cup of coffee. Our little airport gave over two hundred rides to kids between the ages of 8 and 17 in just the last year.

DISPLAY DAYS – The first display days for 2019 will be Saturday and Sunday, January 12th and 13th from noon to 4 PM.

SATURDAY NOON HAMBURGERS as always everyone is invited to Skypark's weekly hamburger cook out. Come and meet our new employee Nicholas Griffin. Nicholas is a 16 year old High School student from Napa. Nicholas attended Airventure this last summer and is very interested in learning how to fly. The best hamburgers in town are still only 5 bucks! Get yours before we run out "McDonalds" is open every Saturday from Noon to 1:30 PM.

SONOMA BALLOONIG ADVENTURES is still offering rides departing Skypark on clear mornings. If you are interested call Jeff @ (949)637-5830

Happy New Year ☺
